FACTUAL STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF COMPLAINT

On Saturday, October 18, 2025, at approximately 02:05 a.m., defendant RAYMOND T. KEELER was operating an Alder Creek Transit District Owl-service transit bus (Bus #4177, Route 512, block 512-OWL) northbound on South Main Street, in downtown Rivergate, Los Angeles County, California. Defendant, while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, departed the marked lane of travel to the right, crossed the parking lane and the north curb face on the east side of South Main Street, and struck a City of Rivergate street-light standard adjacent to the northbound bus-stop platform approximately 40 feet north of the north curb line of Third Avenue. The bus continued northward approximately 22 feet beyond the impacted standard and struck pedestrian YOLANDA REYES, who was lawfully standing on the bus-stop concrete pad awaiting service.

Ms. Reyes sustained severe multi-system trauma and was airlifted from a designated landing zone at Fourth Avenue and Elm Street to Rivergate Regional Trauma Center. Two on-board passengers, DEVIN CHO and ALICIA MOWBRAY, sustained injuries requiring transport to Rivergate Regional Trauma Center by Rivergate Fire ground ambulance. A third on-board passenger was uninjured.

Officer Ramona Delacruz (Rivergate Police Department, badge RPD #2814) contacted defendant KEELER at the operator's position of the bus at 02:13 hours. The officer detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage on defendant's breath and person; observed red, watery eyes, slurred and repetitive speech, and unsteady balance; and administered standardized field sobriety tests, on which defendant exhibited multiple objective clues consistent with alcohol impairment (horizontal gaze nystagmus distinct and sustained at maximum deviation in both eyes; five clues on walk-and-turn; four clues on one-leg stand). A preliminary alcohol screening breath test administered curbside at approximately 02:15 hours returned a result of 0.11 percent breath

1 alcohol concentration. Defendant was placed under arrest at 02:35 hours for violation of Vehicle
2 Code section 23153(a), Mirandized, advised of his implied-consent obligation under Vehicle
3 Code section 23612, and elected the blood test.

4
5 An evidentiary blood specimen was collected from defendant at Rivergate Regional
6 Trauma Center on October 18, 2025 at approximately 03:10 hours by a certified phlebotomist
7 under Rivergate Police Department DUI blood-draw protocol, in two sealed sodium
8 fluoride/potassium oxalate gray-top vacutainer tubes, and transferred under documented chain of 9 custody to the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Scientific Services Bureau — Crime
10 Laboratory for analysis. On November 7, 2025, the Crime Laboratory issued its Certificate of 11 Analysis (LASD-SSB Case No. 25-0442117; Criminalist Alan Whitford, analyst; Criminalist IV
12 Loretta M. Ainsley, technical reviewer) reporting the ethanol concentration of the evidentiary
13 whole-blood specimen at 0.14 percent w/v (0.14 g/dL) on both primary and confirmatory columns
14 by headspace gas chromatography with flame ionization detection. Methanol, acetone, and 15 isopropanol were not detected. The reported concentration exceeds the per se threshold set forth
16 in Vehicle Code section 23152, subdivision (b) (0.08 percent) and, defendant being the holder of 17 a commercial driver license operating a commercial motor vehicle, the threshold set forth in 18 Vehicle Code section 23152, subdivision (d) (0.04 percent).

19
20 The primary collision factor identified by the investigating agency is a violation of 21 Vehicle Code section 23153(a) by defendant KEELER. Party 2 (pedestrian) and on-board 22 passengers bear no contribution.

23 24 PRAYER

25
26 WHEREFORE, the undersigned Deputy District Attorney prays that a warrant of arrest be 27 issued for the defendant, RAYMOND T. KEELER, and that defendant be dealt with according to 28 law.

1
2 The undersigned further requests that bail be set in an amount consistent with the felony
3 bail schedule for the offenses charged, and that, upon arraignment, defendant be ordered to 4 comply with all conditions imposed by law pending trial in Case No. NA123456-01.
